Carriers' Conditions of Carriage and Rules for carriage by Air It is agreed that the goods mentioned in this document are to be carried by air and that the carrier is liable for damage suffered to the consignment or its contents, for the removal of which all claims may be made by any other means available from the air carrier. Unless otherwise instructed instructions are given without any limitation and carrier advises that the consignment may be carried via intermediate stations or ports except the carrier, unless otherwise, has written permission to do so. The carrier is not responsible for damage to carriers' equipment or cargo if shipped from another port, or if damage is caused by carrier after arrival and paying a reasonable charge for removal according to relevant regulations.
